Therefore, IC need another option to try and meet the project deadline which does not involve excessive working on the part of its staff.

Tiredness?

Legal implication?

Any other options available? 4

Another option is to recruit more staff to assist in the project. This will avoid excessive working on the part of IC staff, and so remove the issue of staff being tired and making mistakes. However, it will still take time to recruit the necessary staff and get them up to speed on the project. The deadline may still be missed.

IAS 21 The effects of changes in foreign exchange rates

Colourful and joyful to

(i) Foreign transaction

Monetary items

These are the units of currency, assets and liabilities that will be received or paid in fixed or determinable units of currency.

Examples

- Receivable
- Cash held in a foreign currency
- Financial Assets at amortised cost
- Pensions to be paid in cash
- Loans
- Payable
- Provisions to be paid in cash.

with clear examples

When

- Buy/sell goods or services
- Borrow or lend money
- Incurring or settling liabilities in another country, then:

Steps

- Step1: You need to firstly translate this transaction in functional currency at spot rate,
- Step2: You need to retranslate the monetary item (Bank, receivable, payable, NCL, CL) at the year end and leave non-monetary items(NCA, CA).

Alan Lewin

Experienced tutor, examiner for professional exams

Alan qualified as a chartered accountant in 1982 with Touche Ross (now Deloitte) in Leicester. Alan left accountancy practice in 1985 to start a career in lecturing and then consultancy with more than 28years experience.

Alan now specialises in writing and teaching the subjects of auditing, corporate governance and management theories. He also has examination experience with CIMA where he was chief examiner for 10 years and more recently ACCA where he was F8 Audit and Assurance examiner for 5 years.

Alan is responsible for last minute revision for June2014 at APC for paper F8, P1, P3, P5 and P7.

Steve Chan (ACCA)

ACCA Live Online course Director, Senior Tutor, mentor for OBU.

Steve began his career as an auditor and now he works as a finance director in a HK company and also dedicates himself into education.

As an ACCA qualified accountant Steve brings his specialist knowledge in accounting and auditing. Steve has a comprehensive understanding of how the business world would work and In his class he will use lots of real life examples to try to help students come across lots of complicated areas during their study.

Steve is currently in charge of Live online course program and he is currently teaching almost all of the ACCA papers

Kieran Maguire

senior tutor, qualified accountant, previous accounting body examiner, expert in accounting and finance

Kieran has been teaching ACCA P2 (and its predecessors) since 1989. He is a chartered accountant who has also a wealth of experience lecturing financial and corporate reporting to students, accountants, lawyers, bankers and business owners, in the UK, USA, Russia, Caribbean, Europe and beyond.

He won the PQ Magazine Finance Lecturer of the Year award in 2010, as well as many other teaching and lecturing awards.

Kieran has been regularly interviewed by the BBC, The Financial Times, The Sunday Times, The Guardian, The Independent, and Stanford University, as well as many local media outlets for his knowledge of financial issues and ability to make complex topics understandable.

Kieran has also been an examiner for professional accounting exams, and applies his knowledge in lectures, focussing on techniques, topics and presentation which maximise your marks in exams.

Kieran is responsible for last minute revision for F7 & P2 for June 2014 ACCA exam.

Ian Janes (FCCA)

Experienced tutor, fellow of the ACCA, specialist in Performance and Financial Management

Ian is a highly experienced tutor of professional accountancy papers, specialising in ACCA papers P5 and F5 and CIMA papers P1 and P2. A dual academic prize winner, including a first prize in his ACCA taxation paper, in 2011, 2012 and 2013 he was shortlisted for Public Sector Lecturer of the Year by PQ Magazine.

He has spent many years as a Senior Lecturer in the UK university sector and has practical audit experience from his time at Price Waterhouse

Coopers (formerly Coopers and Lybrand) Chartered Accountants.

Ian is a Senior Examiner for several professional bodies, and also has considerable experience of teaching finance to non-financial managers. Furthermore, he has published many articles in the journals of the professional bodies.

David Evans

Expert in Financial Management and experienced marker

David is a very experienced ACCAP4 and F9 tutor who has just completed his 23rd year of teaching these papers, or their equivalents under the previous ACCA syllabus. He has taught in London, Bristol, Dubai, Singapore, Mauritius and Hong Kong. He is a Fellow of the ICAEW and now he is the tutor here at ACCA APC. David is the author of Kaplan's 'A students' guide to Corporate Finance and Financial Management' which is an excellent foundation for studying both P4 and F9, and which is also a core text or recommended reading for Finance modules at 15 UK Universities. He is an experienced marker, having marked for many years for a number of professional accountancy exam bodies and he likes to illustrate his lectures with examples of good and bad exam technique. His teaching style is to explain technical topics and difficult theory in a very clear, simple, and exam focussed way, giving students an easy to follow step by step approach to tackling even the most complex exam questions. David was shortlisted for the PQ Awards 'Tutor of the Year' in 2014.
